The Wine List

At The Fox Hole, wine is more than a list - it's a story, unfolding a chapter at a time.

This is our current chapter in the ongoing tale, a curated selection reflecting the vineyards, winemakers, and philosophies inspiring us right now.

CHAPTER 5: TALES OF TERROIRS

Wine is shaped by the land - the winds that whisper through the vines, the rivers that carve the valleys, the hands that harvest the fruit. This collection explores how place defines taste, bringing together regions both ancient and new. Each wine is a moment in time, captured in a bottle. Different to great books, this story never ends. The next chapter is always just around the corner. Pour a glass, turn the page, and enjoy this edition of our story.
